- 5.46 Ngā Hapū, the Crown, and the Taranaki Regional Council have been discussing mechanisms to enhance the involvement of the iwi of Taranaki in natural resource management within the Taranaki region.
- 5.47 The Crown has approved two standard arrangements which may be negotiated, including:
- 5.47.1 an advisory board, where the Taranaki Regional Council must have regard to the advice of iwi; and
 - 5.47.2 a joint committee, which gives iwi direct input into the development of regional policy statements and regional plans under the Resource Management Act 1991.
- 5.48 The Crown has also approved the negotiation of a non-standard arrangement, should the parties agree. Taranaki Regional Council has suggested one alternative arrangement which the parties may consider. This arrangement involves:
- 5.48.1 permanent representation on the Taranaki Regional Council policy and planning committee and/or regulatory committee; and

AGREEMENT IN PRINCIPLE

Special acknowledgements

- 5.51 Research is currently being undertaken to ascertain whether statutory pardons could be applicable to any Ngāruahine tupuna. Statutory pardons are granted by Parliament rather than the Crown, but may be facilitated by the Crown. In the Treaty settlement context, statutory pardons may be granted in the interests of reconciliation and forgiveness rather than on the basis of innocence or wrongful conviction.
- 5.52 The Minister for Treaty of Waitangi Negotiations is authorised to decide whether to facilitate statutory pardons when they are requested by claimants [CAB Min (12) 30/4 refers]. If Ngāruahine formally request statutory pardons, Cabinet will have an opportunity to review any proposed pardon when agreement is sought to initial a deed of settlement.
- 5.53 Where the threshold for a statutory pardon is not met, the Crown will explore other mechanisms to acknowledge the treatment of Ngāruahine tupuna.

Cultural redress generally non-exclusive

- 5.54 Where cultural redress is non-exclusive, the Crown may do anything that is consistent with the cultural redress contemplated by this agreement in principle, including entering into, and giving effect to, another settlement that provides for the same or similar cultural redress.
- 5.55 However, the Crown must not enter into another settlement that provides for the same redress where that redress has been made available exclusively for Ngāruahine.
- 5.56 Clause 5.54 is not an acknowledgement by the Crown or Ngā Hapū that any other iwi or group has interests in relation to land or an area to which any of the non-exclusive cultural redress relates.
